Letter from our Associational Missions Strategist, Jeff Hoffman

The book of Psalms helps us understand how we approach God...fearfully, humbly, expectantly, thankfully, and uses words to describe our action as we approach Him...prostrate, face in the ground, daily, seeking. The book of James likewise helps us understand our attitude in approaching Him...patiently, consistently, lovingly, gratefully and uses other words to describe our action constantly honoring, always without complaint, steady, righteous, believing.

If we can approach God as the Bible teaches with a correct posture and correct attitude, then we can hear from Him. As we have sought God through these last months and asked for His wisdom and direction, He has been faithful to respond. I am grateful for your prayers, attitude, forthrightness, and support. Together we have been able to facilitate the merger of both associations, as well as put together the property sale to ensure the future ministry of our association. My prayer is that as we stay together in unity, trusting Him, we can be used as instruments in His hand to the Kingdom's work. I look forward to this time of Spring that symbolizes new beginnings, while we also anticipate His second coming. I hope we can be found faithful upon His return. Together, our association can help provide the avenue for accountability, missions involvement, sound Biblical doctrine, and encouragement for ministry for which we are called.

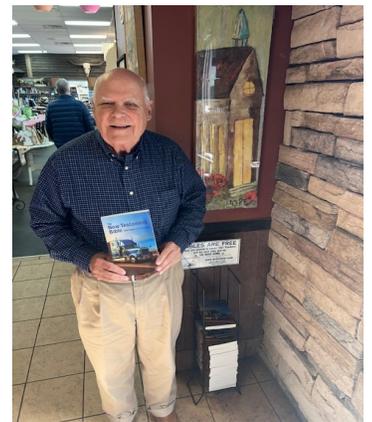

I want to thank you for all your prayers and support of my family through this season. My wife is dealing with a serious health issue, my daughter, Madison, has had major surgery, and my mother has severe dementia. I am grateful for the time you have allowed me to focus on my family through these trials and to be with them. We continue to need your prayer support and to be extremely appreciative for all you have done for us.

In His love,

Jeff Hoffman
